4. Defendant, James Fortier ("Fortier"), is a natural person residing in Ohio who, at the time of the events alleged in this Complaint, was the President of The Robinson Ransbottom Pottery Company, Inc.

¹d/b/a Americraft: The Gift Brokers, Inc.

NATURE OF ACTION

6. The plaintiffs seek injunctive relief and damages for breach of contract, acts of copyright infringement, unfair methods of competition, and unfair business practices. The action arises under the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.; the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); and M.G.L. c. 93A.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 13, 28 U.S.C. § 1338, and the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. This court also has subject matter jurisdiction on the independent basis of diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(2). The amount in controversy in this action exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs. Additionally, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the related state law claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(b) and 1367. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(a).
8. The defendants regularly transact business in this Commonwealth, and have caused injury to the plaintiffs by doing or soliciting business or deriving substantial revenue from goods used or consumed or services rendered in this Commonwealth. This Court, therefore, has personal jurisdiction over the defendants pursuant to M.G.L. c. 223A, § 3. Furthermore, the defendants have sufficient minimum contacts with the Commonwealth such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction would not violate the strictures of constitutional due process.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. Cabral, through Americraft, provides product development and sales representative services to the mail order catalog industry.
10. In or around 1994, Americraft and its previous vendor, Lenroc, began purchasing blank stoneware crocks from Ransbottom.
11. Between 1994 and 1996, Lenroc personalized the blank stoneware crocks by sandblasting designs and text onto them, and Americraft created accounts with catalog buyers for the sale of the sandblasted crocks.
12. In 1997, Cabral approached Bobbie Bennett (“Bennett”), Ransbottom’s then-marketing manager, and invited Ransbottom to become the new vendor of the stoneware crocks and to take over the sandblasting process. Bennett accepted Cabral’s offer.
13. After initially outsourcing the sandblasting to another company, Ransbottom eventually took over the sandblasting process entirely, with the assistance and instruction of Rutland Marble and Granite, Inc., an Americraft vendor at the time.

14. In March 1998, Cabral and Ransbottom's then-President, Peter Petratsas, signed a contract (attached hereto as Exhibit A) appointing Americraft a sales representative for personalized products to mail order catalogs. The contract specified that Americraft was an independent contractor, established Americraft's territory as "sale of personalized products to mail order catalogs," and provided for the payment of commissions on Americraft's sales.
15. In addition, the defendants agreed to pay Americraft a royalty of three percent on sales of all products bearing dog breed silhouettes.
16. Since 1998, Americraft has provided original graphic designs to the defendants for sandblasting onto stoneware crocks.
17. Since 1998, virtually all of the Ransbottom catalog accounts that sell sandblasted crocks have been created by Americraft. Such catalog accounts include, but are not limited to, Grill Lovers, Brookstone, Casual Living, Country Store, HSN/Improvements, LL Bean, Lighthouse Depot, Personal Creations, Potpourri, Solutions, Sportsman's Market, and Wind and Weather.
18. In 2003, Cabral learned that, in violation of the terms of his contract, the defendants used other sales representatives to create accounts with the Eddie Bauer and Swiss Colony catalogs for sandblasted crocks.
19. When Cabral complained to Mateja about the defendants' use of other sales representatives, Mateja informed Cabral that Ransbottom needed to use other sales representatives in order to get more business.
20. On February 13, 2003, Cabral applied to the Register of Copyrights for a Certificate of Registration for approximately 49 graphic designs. A true and accurate copy of the Certificate of Registration (Registration Number VAu 554-880) issued by the U.S. Copyright Office to Americraft on March 3, 2003 is attached hereto as Exhibit B.
21. On January 22, 2004, Cabral applied to the Register of Copyrights for a Certificate of Registration for six additional graphic designs. A true and accurate copy of that application is attached hereto as Exhibit C. That application is still pending.
22. Pursuant to the termination clause in his contract with the defendants, on January 22, 2004, Cabral gave thirty days' written notice that he did not wish to renew his contract. In that letter, Cabral advised Fortier that the defendants must stop producing crocks bearing Americraft's proprietary graphic designs.

- 23. On March 4, 2004, Cabral sent Fortier a cease and desist letter demanding that Ransbottom stop its infringement of Americraft's copyrights.
- 24. The defendants have not agreed to cease and desist their copyright infringement. On information and belief, the defendants have continued to sell and manufacture crocks bearing Americraft's proprietary graphic designs.

COUNT I
(Breach of Contract)

- 25. The plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 as if fully set forth herein.
- 26. In 2003, in violation of the territory provision of their contract with the plaintiffs, the defendants used sales representatives other than Americraft for the sale of personalized products to mail order catalogs, including the Eddie Bauer catalog and the Swiss Colony catalog.
- 27. In violation of their agreement with the plaintiffs, the defendants have failed to pay the plaintiffs a three percent royalty on sales of all items bearing the copyrighted dog breed silhouettes.
- 28. The defendants' breach has caused injury to the plaintiffs.

COUNT II
(Copyright Infringement)

- 29. The plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 28 as if fully set forth herein.
- 30. Between 1998 and 2004, the plaintiffs created more than fifty original works of authorship and fixed them in tangible media of expression.
- 31. The plaintiffs have complied in all respects with 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., and all other laws governing copyright, and have secured or are in the process of securing the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the copyright of the graphic designs they created, and Americraft is the sole owner of all right, title and interest in same.
- 32. Since March 1, 2004, the plaintiffs have not authorized the defendants to reproduce, distribute, manufacture, advertise or sell the copyrighted graphic designs or any product containing portions thereof.
- 33. Since March 1, 2004, the defendants have deliberately and wilfully infringed, and will continue to infringe, Americraft's copyrights in the graphic designs by manufacturing, printing, promoting, advertising, and selling copies of those designs.

34. By reason of the foregoing, Cabral and Americraft have been damaged and will continue to be damaged, and have been caused and will continue to be caused irreparable injury, unless the defendants are enjoined by this Court.

COUNT III
(Unfair Competition in Violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

35. The plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 34 as if fully set forth herein.
36. The defendants manufacture and sell products in interstate commerce bearing Americraft's copyrighted graphic designs.
37. The defendants' manufacture and sale of products bearing the copyrighted graphic designs is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of both the catalog buyers and the ultimate consumers of those products regarding the origin, sponsorship or approval of those products.
38. Cabral and Americraft have been, and will continue to be, damaged by these acts.

COUNT IV
(Unfair Trade Practices in Violation of G.L. c. 93A, §§ 2, 11)

39. The plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 38 as if fully set forth herein.
40. The defendants' willful, knowing and deliberate choice to continue to manufacture products bearing Americraft's copyrighted graphic designs, and to sell such products to the catalog accounts created by Americraft, constitutes an unfair and deceptive act or practice in the conduct of trade or commerce.
41. The defendants' unfair and deceptive acts and practices have damaged the plaintiffs in violation of M.G.L. 93A.

COUNT V
(Injunctive Relief)

42. The plaintiffs repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 41 as if fully set forth herein.

43. The foregoing acts by the defendants have caused and will cause irreparable harm to the plaintiffs that cannot be adequately remedied by money damages.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs demand:

- A. that judgment for damages, including statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., be entered for an amount to be determined at trial, pursuant to Counts I-IV;
- B. that judgment for multiple damages, costs and reasonable attorney's fees be awarded pursuant to Count IV;
- C. that the defendants be required to destroy all existing stoneware crocks bearing Americraft's proprietary graphic designs; that the defendants be enjoined from selling crocks bearing the proprietary graphic designs, pursuant to Counts II-IV;
- D. that the defendants, at their own expense, be directed to permit and pay for an immediate, full and complete accounting for all sales using Americraft's proprietary graphic designs;
- E. that an injunction issue pursuant to Counts II-V requiring that the defendants discontinue the manufacturing, printing, promotion, advertising, sale and distribution of stoneware crocks bearing Americraft's proprietary graphic designs; that the defendants be required to inform each of their catalog accounts that Ransbottom is no longer associated in any way with Americraft and that all future orders should be made with Americraft; that the defendants be barred from using Americraft's proprietary graphic designs; that the defendants refrain from soliciting or otherwise contacting the plaintiffs' customers, vendors, and employees; and
- F. such other relief as this Court deems just and reasonable.

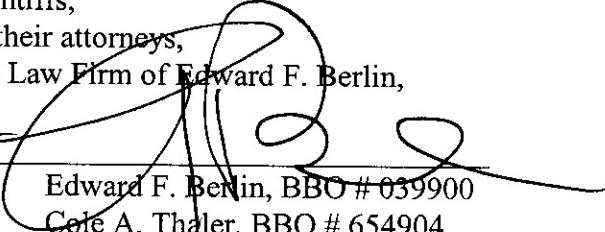

The plaintiffs demand a trial by jury on all counts so triable.

Respectfully submitted,
